Direct from the Director

Jennifer Drinka
Library Director

“We’re living in difficult times and the great joy and great nourishment that comes from reading is what we need now.”
-Baroness Helena Kennedy.

Fall is in the air and the fresh smell of apple orchards and the dance of autumn leaves inspires a sense of coziness and a desire to learn something new. What better place to find yourself than in a good book? New worlds await you inside the 134,770 books at your Library.

From Storytimes where little ones are encouraged to explore their world, to our new Tween Graphic Novel Book Club for 8-12 year olds and Taco Tuesdays for 12-19 year olds, where developing young minds learn to express themselves, to Novel Pleasures and Book Chats where adults find like minds to enhance the richness of the reading experience, there are so many ways for all ages to engage with others and share your love of reading at the Library.
