BOARD OF TRUSTEES AND LIBRARY DIRECTOR RELATIONSHIP

POLICY

The Board of Trustees is the governing body. The Library Director is the chief executive and acts as the liaison officer between the board and employees. All full and part-time employees shall be employed by the Board after considering the recommendations of the Library Director. Trustees shall deal with the Library Director as a Board and shall deal with staff members through the Library Director. Individual Board members shall not give any orders or directives to the Library Director or any subordinates of the Library Director, unless it is approved by a majority of the Board of Trustees.
