

A Contribution to the Future

A contribution to the Library benefits the future of not only the Library collection and building, but also the surrounding community.

Donations of $250 and up are recognized on the Giving Tree.

Contributions may take the form of:

- Gifts of cash
- Gifts of stock or securities
- Memorial gifts honoring relatives or friends
- Gifts through corporation or business
- Beneficiary: Will, Trust or Life Insurance policy
- Planned giving

Contributions may be designated for:

- Books and materials
- Equipment
- Furnishings
- Endowment fund
- General needs

Sponsorship Opportunities:

Sponsorship opportunities for various areas of the Library start at a donation of $10,000 or more.

Contact: Library Director, Jennifer Drinka at jdrinka@apl.d.info for more information and to discuss other sponsorship opportunities.

The areas available are:

- ◆ Teen Center $50,000
- ◆ Children's Neighborhood $50,000
- ◆ Fireplace/Front Room $25,000
- ◆ Workshop $25,000

- ◆ Business Area $20,000
- ◆ Reading Room $20,000
- ◆ Studio $15,000
- ◆ Meeting Room 2 $15,000
- ◆ Meeting Room 1 $10,000
- ◆ Quiet Room $10,000

The Giving Tree:

Is a permanent display containing both leaves and stones recognizing the generosity of donors to the Antioch Public Library District.

The Giving Tree offers friends, families, organizations, and businesses a way to memorialize, honor, thank, or acknowledge those who are worthy of special appreciation.

The leaf colors signify varying levels of contribution:

- Bronze $250.00-$499.99
- Silver $500.00-$999.99
- Gold $1,000.00-$2,499.99

The Stone sizes also signify levels of contribution:

- Small Stone $2,500.00-$4,999.99
- Large Stone $5,000.00-$9,999.99

The Antioch Public Library District follows guidelines described in Service Policy 29—GIFTS and MEMORIALS when accepting donations. A complete copy of this policy is located on the Antioch Public Library District's webpage.
